

Registered Sex Offenders

Convicted sex offenders must register with the police department or sheriff's office in the jurisdiction where the offender resides. Out-of-state sex offenders are required to register if they work or attend school in North Dakota. Each time the offender moves or changes jobs, the offender must notify the local law enforcement agency.

Registry information shall be used for the purposes of the administration of criminal justice, screening of current or prospective employees, volunteers or otherwise for the protection of the public in general and children in particular.

Unlawful use of the information for purposes of intimidating or harassing another may be a crime and punishable by law.

The North Dakota Sex Offender website is available via Internet pursuant to North Dakota Century Code section 12.1-32-15. The North Dakota Office of Attorney General is responsible for maintaining the following:

The Campus Sex Crimes Prevention Act (CSCPA) of 2000 is a federal law that provides for the tracking of convicted sex offenders enrolled at, or employed by, institutions of higher education. The CSCPA is an amendment to the Jacob Wetterling Crimes Against Children and Sexually Violent Offender Act. The federal law requires state law enforcement agencies (in North Dakota, it is the North Dakota Bureau of Criminal Investigations) to provide TMCC with a list of registered sex offenders who have indicated that they are either enrolled, employed or carrying on a vocation at TMCC.

This information is provided in compliance with the Campus Sex Crimes Prevention Act of 2000 and the North Dakota Offender Registration requirements established by the North Dakota Century Code, Section 12.1-32-15. This information also complies with the Jeanne Clery Act, 20 U.S.C. Section 1092.
